Ep #213: Farewell for Now!

Hello, my friends. This is episode number 213. I am your host, Becca Pike, and it is time for your weekly dose of Hell Yes Coaching. Let's go.

Welcome to The Hell Yes Entrepreneur podcast. I am your favorite business coach, Becca Pike. If you're looking for high level CEO leadership skills, modern day marketing strategies that actually convert the hell out of your leads, and you want to create a big ass wallet and big ass impact in your community, then this podcast is for you.

Hi, guys. Alright, listen. I know there's going to be a little bit of devastation with this episode, but there is also going to be a lot of liberation for you. I have always taught you guys to step away and put yourself first. Your family, your home, it all comes first. And when you lead like a strong CEO, you know that you can take creative breaks. You know that you can take personal breaks, and you know that you can come back stronger, and you know your audience isn't going anywhere because you've built something way too big to just let fizzle out.

The summer is here, and my babies are growing up so quickly, and I want to focus on them all summer long. So, I am taking a podcast hiatus until September. I'm going to be enjoying the pool. I'm going to be going to grill outs, baseball games, concerts with my family, with zero concern about stepping away. You do not have to be concerned about taking breaks. You have built something so much bigger than you as well, and it can sustain without you holding its hand. This is literally what I teach all of the time.

Nothing happens to your company when you fuel yourself, except good things. It only helps your company in the long run when you are well-rested, when you are taking space, and when you are able to create from a filled cup. And I'm going to show you how this is done. I am taking a break until September, and when I return in September, I'm 100% positive that we will have not missed a beat together.

We're going to pick up right where we left off. I will have so much more creative power. I will be so well-rested. And I'm going to bring you the best of the top episodes. So please, do make sure that you are subscribed to this podcast so that you are notified when I am making my banging return, okay?

In the meantime, here's some great options for you. If I'm being frank, my company is completely blowing the fuck up, and I want you to join in on the fun. So here's some options. A free option: Go through these episodes. Go find the ones that strike gold with you and re-listen to them. We have 213 episodes for you to choose from, a plethora of storytelling, interviews, strategy sessions. These are all at your fingertips. So go back through, take these next three months and re-listen to all of the gold.

Secondly, I update my Instagram stories every single day with what's going on in my world, and this is a great place for you to follow along with me all summer, as well as get lots of business advice. My Instagram handle is @1BeccaPike.

Third, I would like to offer you to join Millionaire In My Pocket for only ninety-nine dollars a month, and because you're an avid podcast listener, I want you to get your first 14 days free, okay? This space is absolutely blowing up because it is so similar to a podcast. A lot of people are calling it the private podcast.

And honestly, if I'm being frank, we go way deeper inside of Millionaire In My Pocket than we do here on this podcast. Here's the difference between the podcast and Millionaire In My Pocket, okay? On The Hell Yes Entrepreneur podcast, you get to know me, and you get to know my personality by listening to me chat, chatting away. I'm interviewing people. I'm updating you on my life.

But inside of Millionaire In My Pocket, you're going to get personalized and specific audio trainings that you can listen to on the go. And right now, there is a ton in there that you can literally binge right this moment, and none of this has aired on my podcast. This is all private. This is trainings. These are so freaking good. And it's so good that at the time of me recording this episode right now, we currently have 61 people inside this container. It's been open for almost sixty days, and not one single person has canceled their subscription. What does that tell you? That's insane.

So you can find this on my IG stories, or you can always contact us at contact@hellyescoachingonline.com. There will be links in the show notes as well for you to join Millionaire In My Pocket and have some fun with us inside of that.

Last but not least, if you haven't bought your tickets to Hell Yes Live, July 15th through the 17th, what are you even doing? We've already sold seven times more tickets this July than we have any other round. Word's getting around that this is the absolute best business conference offered in the industry. You will never want for another business conference ever again.

90% of all the money that I've made has come from being in person in these immersive experiences because these are the experiences that normalize the lifestyle and the wealth that you want. This is where you meet the people and you learn the things that create the life that you want.

July 15th through the 17th, and July 18th is the VIP day if you buy your VIP ticket. We are almost sold out of VIP tickets. This is the top business investment of the year, and it's the kickoff party to my biggest and most in-depth space that I run, the Scale to Seven Mastermind. I only open enrollment for Scale to Seven twice a year for this high-level mastermind, and it's on day one of the live event. So you do not have to go to the live event in order to be a part of the mastermind. I do encourage you to, but you do not have to. You can just apply to the mastermind today. We start July 15th. We're going to close the doors to be available to come into this on July 14th.

Okay, my friends. May you have the best freaking summer of your life. May you love on your babies and love on your man. And again, make sure that you are subscribed so that you get notified when I make my return to the microphone. And please continue to follow along over on Instagram and let
